(4) The liquidator may, in the case of a company that was carrying on long-term insurance business, continue to carry on the business with a view to its being transferred as a going concern to another insurance company, whether in existence or being formed for that purpose.

(5) For the purpose of exercising his functions under subsection (4), the liquidator may agree to the variation of any policies in existence at the date of the order but he shall not effect any policies.

(6) If the liquidator is satisfied that the interests of the creditors in respect of liabilities of the company attributable to its long-term insurance business require the appointment of a special manager, he may apply to the court for an appointment.

(7) The court may on an application under subsection (6), appoint a special manager to act during that time and with any powers the court may direct.

(8) The court shall give to the liquidator any directions as may appear necessary or desirable for the purpose of the winding up.

(9) The liquidator shall furnish the Superintendent with the information the Superintendent may from time to time require and report to him whenever he intends to apply to the court for instructions and particulars of the application must be furnished simultaneously with the report.

(10) The Superintendent is entitled to be heard on an application under subsection (9) and may himself make an application to the court to be heard on any matter relating to the conduct of the winding up.

(2) If, on the winding up of a company the liabilities and assets of an insurance fund of the company have been ascertained and there is a surplus of the assets over the liabilities, there shall be added to the liabilities of that insurance fund an amount equal to the proportion of the surplus equivalent to the proportion of the profits, if any, in the class of insurance business to which the insurance fund relates, which was allocated to shareholders and policy-holders during the ten years immediately preceding the commencement of the winding up.

(3) The assets of an insurance fund referred to in subsection (2) shall be deemed to exceed the liabilities of that fund only in so far as the assets exceed the liabilities after the addition referred to in that subsection and where it appears to the court that by reason of special circumstances it would be inequitable for the amount specified to be added to the liabilities of the insurance fund, the amount to be added shall be an amount the court directs.

73. Reduction of contracts as alternative to winding up

In the case of a company that has been proved to be unable to pay its debts, the court may, if it thinks fit, reduce the amounts due under the contracts of the company upon the terms and subject to the conditions the court thinks just, in place of making a winding up order.

74. Liability of directors and officers

(1) If in the course of the winding up of a company, the court is satisfied that the amount of an insurance fund has been diminished by reason of any contravention of this Act, every person who at the time of the contravention was a director, the principal representative or an officer of the company, are deemed in respect of the contravention to have committed misfeasance unless he proves that the contravention occurred without his knowledge and that he used all due diligence to prevent the occurrence.

(2) The court may assess the sum by which the amount of the insurance fund has been diminished by reason of the misfeasance and may order any person found guilty of misfeasance to contribute to the insurance fund the whole or any part of that sum by way of compensation.

75. Application of deposits

On the winding-up of a company the Commission must pay to the liquidator all monies and securities held as a deposit in respect of that company and the liquidator must, in accordance with this Act, apply the monies and securities towards discharging the liabilities of the company in respect of policies issued by it.

76. Winding up part of business

(1) Where the court makes an order for the winding up of part of the business of a company a scheme for the purpose of the winding up must be prepared and submitted for the confirmation of the court

Voluntary Liquidation

77. Voluntary liquidation

(1) A voluntary liquidation of a registered local company shall be subject to authorisation by the Board upon the recommendation of the Superintendent and the Superintendent shall so recommend when

(2) When it has received the authorisation of the Board the company shall:

- (a) immediately cease to carry on business, retaining only the powers necessary to effect an orderly liquidation;
- (b) discharge or provide for the discharge of all its obligations; and
- (c) wind up all operations undertaken prior to the receipt of the authorisation.

(5) The Board, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent, may exempt the mailing of such notice to specified persons upon a showing of cause therefor by the financial institution.

(6) The authorisation to go into voluntary liquidation shall not prejudice the rights of a claimant or other creditor to payment in full of his claim nor the right of an owner of funds or other property held by the company to its return.

(7) When the Board, after consultation with the Superintendent, is satisfied that the company has discharged or provided for the discharge of all of its obligations, the company shall be struck from the list of registered local companies and the remainder of its assets shall be distributed among its shareholders in proportion to their respective rights, but no such distribution shall be made before:

- (a) all obligations have been discharged or provided for or, in the case of a disputed claim, before the company has turned over to the Superintendent as agent for the Board, sufficient funds to meet any liability that may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction;
- (b) any funds payable to a claimant or other creditor who has not claimed them have been turned over to the Superintendent as agent for the Board; and
- (c) any other funds and property held by the company that could not be returned to the owners thereof have been transferred to the Superintendent as agent for the Board together with the inventories pertaining thereto.

(8) Upon paying or delivering funds and property under paragraph 7(b) and (c) into the custody of the Superintendent, the company shall be relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the funds and property for any claim in respect thereof.

(9) Any person claiming an interest in funds or property paid or delivered under paragraph 7(b) or (c) may file a claim thereto with the Superintendent and, after an appropriate hearing, the decision of which shall be communicated to the claimant and made a public record, the Superintendent may deliver up the property or make the payment.

(10) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Superintendent may commence an action in the High Court to establish his claim within thirty days following the decision of the Superintendent.

(11) If the assets of a registered local company, whose voluntary liquidation has been authorised, will not be sufficient for the full discharge of all its obligations or completion of the liquidation is unduly delayed, the Board, after consultation with the Superintendent, may direct the Superintendent to apply, and the Superintendent shall apply, for an order placing the company under judicial management and the provisions of sections 61 to 68 shall apply to the application and the order with such modifications as the circumstances may require.

129. Power of group life insured to sue insurer

A person insured under a group life insurance policy may, in his own name, enforce a right given to him under the policy, subject to any defence available to the insurer against him or against the insured.

Assignment and Mortgages of Policies

130. Assignment of policies

(1) After the coming into effect of this Act every assignment of a policy must be by deed or other instrument in writing.

(2) An assignment is not binding on the company liable under the policy until written notice of the date and purport of the assignment is received by the company at its principal office in Antigua and Barbuda.

(3) An insurer shall in a register of policies, required by section 205 to be maintained, enter the date and purport of every assignment that it receives notice on and the date that the notice is received.

(4) Upon the presentation of a memorandum of discharge of an assignment, the insurer must enter the discharge in the register.

131. Effect of notice on assignment

(1) Notwithstanding section 130, a company shall not be entitled to any protection under that section or to rely upon that section where the company

- (a) has not acted in good faith; or
- (b) has received express notice in writing of any trust, right, equity or interest of any person.

(2) If a company receives express notice in writing of any trust, right, equity or interest of any person, the company may, if it thinks fit, pay to the Superintendent any money payable under the policy, and the receipt of the Superintendent for the money shall be a valid discharge to the company for the money so paid.

(3) Money paid to the Superintendent pursuant to subsection (2), shall be paid by the Superintendent to the person or persons the court so orders.

132. Assignment not to distinguish rights

(1) The rights and liabilities arising under a policy shall not be deemed, either at law or in equity, to be merged or extinguished by reason only of an assignment of the policy, whether at law or in equity, to the company that issued the policy.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 130 or section 131, but subject to subsection (3), no assignment of an industrial policy shall be valid without the consent of the company liable under the policy.

(3) If the company refuses its consent to the assignment of an industrial policy, the policy-holder may appeal to the Superintendent whose decision shall be final.

133. Release of assignments

Upon payment or discharge of any money or other obligation secured by an assignment of a policy, the assignee shall give to the assignor a memorandum of discharge indicating that the assignment is relinquished and the policy discharged and if the assignment was by deed, the assignee shall execute a deed of release in favour of the assignor.

Protection of Policies

134. Lost policy

(1) If the holder of a policy or a person claiming the benefit of the provisions of section 146 or section 147 in respect of a policy, claims that the policy, in this section referred to as the original policy, is lost or has been destroyed, the company liable under the original policy may, subject to this section upon

- (a) application by the holder of the policy or that person; and
- (b) any evidence as to the loss or destruction of the original policy as the company deems sufficient, issue to the applicant a special policy in substitution for the original policy.

(2) If an application under subsection (1) is made by a person referred to in that subsection, the company shall not issue a special policy unless the company is satisfied that section 146 or 147 should be applied in favour of the applicant in relation to the policy.

(3) A special policy shall

- (a) be a copy, as nearly as can be ascertained, of the original policy in substitution for which it has been issued;
- (b) contain copies of every endorsement on the original policy registered by the company; and
- (c) state the reason for the issue of the special policy.

(4) Before issuing a special policy, the company shall, if the amount insured, exclusive of bonus additions exceeds, five thousand dollars, give at least one month's notice of its intention to do so in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in Antigua and Barbuda and approved by the Superintendent.

(5) The expenses of the advertisement and all other costs of the issue of a special policy shall be paid by the applicant at the time of the application.

(6) The fact of the issue of a special policy and the reason for its issue shall be recorded by the company in the appropriate register of policies.

(7) A special policy is valid and available for all purposes that the original policy would have been valid and available for and, after the issue of the special policy, the original policy becomes void.

(8) If the company fails to issue a special policy within six months after receipt of an application in writing from the policy-holder, the court may, upon application by summons, and upon any evidence as to the loss or destruction of the original policy as the court deems sufficient, order the company, upon the terms and within the time the court thinks fit, to issue a special policy.

(9) If the holder of a special policy or a person claiming the benefit of the provisions of section 146 or 147 in respect of a special policy, claims that the special policy is lost or has been destroyed, this section shall apply as if the special policy were an original policy issued by the company.

135. Interest of the insured to be protected

(1) The property and interest of any person in a policy effected (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) upon his own life is not liable to be applied or made available in payment of his debts by any judgment, order or process of any court.

(2) If a person who has effected a policy on his own life dies after the commencement of this Act, the monies payable upon his death under or in respect of that policy shall not be applied or made available in payment of his debts by any judgment, order or process of any court, or by retainer by an executor or administrator, or in any other manner whatsoever, except by virtue of a contract or charge made by the person whose life is insured, or by virtue of an express direction contained in his will or other testamentary instrument executed by him that the monies arising from the policy shall be so applied.

(3) A direction to pay debts, or a charge of debts upon the whole or any part of the testator's estate, or a trust for the payment of debts, shall not be an express direction.

136. Effect of capital punishment, suicide on policy

A policy shall not be avoided merely on the ground that the person whose life is insured suffered capital punishment or died by his own hand or act, whether or not at the time of death he was mentally ill, if upon the true construction of the policy, the company agreed to pay the sum insured on the happening of either of those events.

137. Condition reducing the sum insured void

A term or condition of a policy that limits, to an amount less than the sum insured, the amount payable under the policy, in the event of the death of the life insured, shall not have any force or effect unless the person who effected the policy agreed in writing to the insertion in the policy of that term or condition.

Paid-up Policies, Surrender Values and Non-Forfeiture

138. Application to certain types of policies

Sections 139 to 145 shall not apply to

- (a) an instrument securing the grant of an annuity for a term dependent upon human life, not being a deferred annuity, during the period of deferment; or

- (b) a policy that provides insurance against contingencies none of which may happen, not being a policy that provides for the payment of a sum of money if the life insured by the policy survives a specified period.

139. Paid-up policies

(1) A policy-holder who desires to discontinue further premium payments on a policy on which not less than three years' premiums have been paid shall, if the policy has a cash surrender value, be entitled on application to the company to receive instead of that policy, a paid-up policy.

(2) If a paid-up policy is issued pursuant to subsection (1) and the contingency occurs that would have rendered the company liable under the original policy, the company shall then be liable under the paid-up policy, limited to its paid-up value.

140. Surrender of policies

Notwithstanding the terms of a particular policy the owner of a policy that has been in force for at least three years, shall, on application to the company, be entitled to surrender the policy and to receive not less than the cash surrender value of the policy less any tax payable and the amount of any debt owing to the company under, or secured by, the policy.

141. Superintendent may vary obligation to pay surrender value

The Superintendent may on an application by a company, suspend or vary for a period and subject to any value conditions he thinks fit the obligation of the insurance company to pay surrender values pursuant to section 140 if, in his opinion, the payment of cash of those surrender values would be prejudicial to the financial stability of the insurance company or to the interests of its policy-holders.

142. Dividends

A company shall on the issue of each policy, give a written disclosure to each policy-holder of the basis on which he is entitled to a dividend, bonus or other means of distribution of profit.

143. Non-forfeiture of ordinary policies

(1) An ordinary policy shall not be forfeited by reason only of the non-payment of any premium, in this section referred to as the overdue premium if

- (a) the policy contains provisions enabling the exercise of certain options in lieu of the forfeiture of the policy; and
- (b) the surrender value of the policy calculated as at the day immediately preceding that on which the overdue premium falls due, exceeds the sum of the amount of the debts owing to the company under, or secured by, the policy and the amount of the overdue premium.

(2) The company may until payment of the overdue premium, charge interest on it, on terms not less favourable to the policy-holder than the terms, if any, as may be prescribed.

(3) The overdue premium and any interest charged on it under this section that remains unpaid shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a debt owing to the company under the policy.

(4) Without affecting the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, an ordinary policy on which not less than three years' premiums have been paid shall not be forfeited by reason only of the non-payment of a premium unless, on or after the day that the premium fell due

- (a) the company liable under the policy serves a notice on the policy-holder stating
 - (i) the amount due or payable to the company at the date of the notice;
 - (ii) that the policy will be forfeited at the expiration of twenty-eight days after the date of the notice if a sufficient sum is not paid to the company within that period; and
- (b) a period of at least thirty days has elapsed after the service of the notice.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) a notice posted to the last known address of the policy-holder shall be deemed to be a notice on the policy holder.

144. Non-forfeiture of industrial life policies

(1) An industrial life policy on which less than one year's premiums have been paid shall not be forfeited by reason only of the non-payment of any premium, unless the premium has remained unpaid for not less than four weeks after it became due.

(2) An industrial policy on which not less than one year's but less than two years premiums have been paid shall not be forfeited by reason only of the non-payment of any premium, unless the premium has remained unpaid for not less than eight weeks after it became due.

(3) An industrial policy on which not less than two years premiums have been paid shall not be forfeited by reason only of the non-payment of any premium, unless the premium has remained unpaid for not less than twelve weeks after it became due.

(4) If an industrial policy on which not less than three years premiums have been paid has been forfeited by reason of the non-payment of any premium, the company shall, without requiring any application from the policy-holder, issue a paid-up policy for an amount not less than that specified in the table included in the policy.

(5) If a paid-up policy is issued pursuant to subsection (4) and the contingency occurs that would have rendered the company liable under the original policy the company shall then be liable under the paid-up policy limited to its paid-up value.

(6) The company shall notify the policy-holder in writing of the fact that the paid-up policy has been granted and shall specify the amount of the policy and the contingency upon which the policy is payable.

(7) An industrial policy shall not be forfeited by reason only of the non-payment of any premium if the non-payment is as a result of non-collection by the company.

145. Treatment of debts on issue of paid-up policies

If in pursuance of any provisions of this Part a policy holder is entitled to receive, or a company is required to grant, a paid-up policy and there is any debt owing to the company under or secured by the policy, the company may elect

- (a) to treat the debt so owing as a debt secured by the paid-up policy and the paid-up policy shall be a security for the debt so owing; or
- (b) on ascertaining the amount of the paid-up policy, to reduce the amount by taking into account upon a basis approved by the Superintendent the debt so owing to the company and the debt shall cease to be owing to the company.

Payment of Policy Monies

146. Payment without probate or administration in certain cases

(1) An insurer by whom any monies are payable under one or more policies to the personal representative of a deceased person may, without requiring the production of probate or letters of administration, pay out of the monies any amount (including any bonuses added to the policy or policies) not exceeding five thousand dollars to any person who satisfies the insurer that he is entitled to

- (a) receive the property of the deceased person;
- (b) obtain probate of the will of the deceased person; or
- (c) take out letters of administration of the estate of the deceased person.

(2) An insurer who makes a payment pursuant to subsection (1) shall be discharged from all further liability in respect of the monies so paid.

(3) All persons to whom monies are paid under subsection (1) shall apply those monies in the due course of administration and, if the insurer thinks fit, it may require those persons to give sufficient security by bond or otherwise that the monies so paid will be so applied.

147. Death of policy-holder not being life insured

(1) Subject to this section, where a policy-holder, not being the person whose life is insured by the policy, pre-deceases the person whose life is insured, and a person satisfies the company that issued the policy

- (a) that he is entitled under the will or on the intestacy of the deceased policy-holder, to the benefit of the policy; or
- (b) that he is entitled to obtain probate of the will, or to take out letters of administration of the estate of the deceased policy-holder, the company may, without requiring the production of any probate or letters of administration, endorse on the policy a declaration that the person has so satisfied the company and is the holder of the policy, and that person then becomes, subject to subsection (2), the holder of the policy.

(2) Subsection (1) does not confer on a person declared to be the holder of a policy any beneficial interest in the policy that he would not otherwise have had.

(3) This section applies in relation to a policy referred to in subsection (1) whether the deceased holder dies before or after the commencement of this section.

(4) This section does not apply in relation to

- (a) a policy the surrender value of which, at the date of the death of the deceased holder, exceeds or exceeded two thousand dollars; or
- (b) a policy which is one of two or more policies held by the deceased holder and issued by the same company if the aggregate of the surrender values of those policies at the date of death of the deceased holder exceeds or exceeded two thousand dollars.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the surrender value of a policy is the amount (including any amount in respect of bonus additions) that would be paid by the company issuing the policy on its surrender.

148. Company not bound to see to application of monies

Nothing contained in this Part shall be construed as requiring a company to see to the application of any monies paid under section 146 by the company in respect of any policy.

149. Company may pay money to Superintendent

(1) A company may pay to the Superintendent any money payable by it in respect of a policy that, in the opinion of the company, no sufficient discharge can otherwise be obtained.

(2) The receipt of the Superintendent for any money paid under subsection (1) shall be a good and valid discharge to the company for the money so paid, and the money shall be dealt with according to an order made by the court.

150. Unclaimed monies

(1) A company shall, not later than sixty days after the end of its financial year, deliver to the Superintendent a statement of all unclaimed monies as at that date.

(2) The statement shall specify, in respect of each policy to which it refers

- (a) the name and last known address of the person whose life is insured;
- (b) the name of the policy-holder (if known) and his last known address; and
- (c) the amount due and the date that it became due.

(3) The company shall pay to the Superintendent at the time of the delivery of the statement, the total amount of unclaimed monies shown in the statement, less any amount paid by the company, between its financial year and the date that the copy of the statement is delivered, to the person to whom the amount was due, and the company shall furnish, with the copy of the statement, particulars in writing of the amounts paid.

(4) If unclaimed money is paid to the Superintendent under this section and he is satisfied that, but for this section, a person would have been paid the unclaimed money by the company that made the payment or if that company is no longer carrying on that class of insurance business, by the company to which it sold or disposed of the business, the Superintendent shall arrange payment of the unclaimed money to that company and specify the person to whom that company is to pay the money, and that company shall then pay the money to the person specified.

(5) If in pursuance of this section a company has paid to the Superintendent an amount in respect of a policy and the company satisfies the Superintendent that the amount paid exceeds the amount that would have been payable under the policy to the policy-holder, the Superintendent shall arrange for payment of a refund to the company in the amount of the excess.

(6) On payment to the Superintendent of unclaimed money in accordance with this section, a company is, subject to subsection (4), discharged from further liability in respect to the amount paid.

(7) There shall be paid from the Consolidated Fund the sums necessary to give effect to this section.

(8) A company that fails to comply with this section commits an offence.

(9) In this section

(2) The burden of proving that a statement was so made shall lie upon the company.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to allow the avoidance of a policy for any reason or in any circumstances for or in which the policy could not have been avoided apart from this section.
